THE GREAT THANKSGIVING FOR ALL SAINTS

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty (almighty God), Creator of heaven and earth: God of Abraham and Sarah, God of Miriam and Moses, God of Joshua and Deborah, God of Ruth and David, God of the priests and the prophets, God of Mary and Joseph, God of the apostles and the martyrs, God of our mothers and our fathers, God of our children to all generations. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ. By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over Jesus took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to the disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving, as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.

Renew our communion with all your saints, especially those whom we name before you—Name(s) — (in our hearts). Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, strengthen us to run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the Pioneer and Perfecter of our faith.

By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and forever.

Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

GIVING THE BREAD AND CUP

Pastor: Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. The bread which we break is a sharing in the body of Christ.

(The pastor breaks the bread)

The cup over which we give thanks is a sharing in the blood of Christ.

(The pastor lifts the cup)

The body and blood of Christ given for you.

ALL: (All partake of the communion elements together while the Asbury Ensemble sings)

Word for the Month: WITNESS

Scripture of the Month: Book of James

Thought for the Month: Change your church culture. Create an outwardly focused environment where hospitality and invitation happen Sunday and every day of the week. This book offers five steps to help congregations go public with their faith—from service projects to sharing the faith with persons who want to know more about Christ and the church. This book offers tactics to increase individual and church competency with relational evangelism with friends, neighbors, and even strangers. Learn how to start up a conversation, follow up with contacts, and navigate unfamiliar settings. Learn what works and what doesn't.

We may think that just because we invite someone on our church property, they'll come back. Often we don't reach out to help people cross the faith line, because we're uncomfortable with "evangelism" or just plain scared. Gain the confidence to share the good news boldly. After all, we know the name of the One who loves us all and who holds all power over heaven and earth.

Emphasis for the Month: EVANGELISM

Pastor's Book of the Month: Get Their Name: Grow Your Church by Building New Relationships by Bob Farr, Doug Anderson, and Kay Kotan.

Asbury United Methodist Church is a Lighthouse Congregation of the Baltimore Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Asbury Celebrates National Family Caregivers Month November 2024

Please join the Asbury Caregiver Ministry in celebrating National Family Caregivers Month, November 1-30, 2024. This nationwide month-long focus on caregivers offers an opportunity to recognize the more than 70 million people who provide paid and unpaid care, raise awareness of caregiving issues, and show support to caregivers.

This year's theme is "I Care," Let's show a little love to Asbury family caregivers by:

1. Sending a card of encouragement
2. Offering help and emotional support
3. Encouraging them to prioritize their needs and take care of their own health, and
4. Thank them for all they do!

Please check the bulletin throughout the month of November for caregiver information and resources.

DONATE To SUPPORT The 2024 ANGEL TREE PROGRAM!

Greetings, Asburyans and Friends,

Christmas is fast approaching and the Angel Tree committee is already gearing up for its 2024 celebration. About this time every year, the Prison Fellowship mails us the names of participating children and their families. We are expecting the names of at least 40 children. Asbury will once again follow the Prison Fellowship recommendation that in lieu of Christmas gifts, we will give each child a gift card. We hope that you will continue to support our efforts to add much holiday happiness and joy to these children and their families by making a $40.00 donation. Please make your check payable to the United Methodist Women with Angel Tree written on the memo line and mail it by November 16, 2024 to:

Christine C. McDaniel
2008 Houston Street
Suitland, MD 20746

Your overwhelming response last year allowed us to give each child a $50.00 card, a gift bag and a stocking filled with miscellaneous goodies. On December 14, 2024, members of the Angel Tree committee will don their Christmas caps, pack their vehicles with gifts and spend the afternoon sharing the Christmas spirit with these families.

Thank you so much for your continued support of the Angel Tree program. It is greatly appreciated. For additional information, you may contact Angel Tree coordinators, Christine C. McDaniel at (301) 420- 2540 or Claudia Thompson at (301) 261-5822.

Yours in Christ,

Christine McDaniel and Claudia Thompson

THE STEWARDSHIP OF GIVING

Financial Update: 2024 Year-to-Date Giving Summary

Grace and Peace Faithful Asburyans,

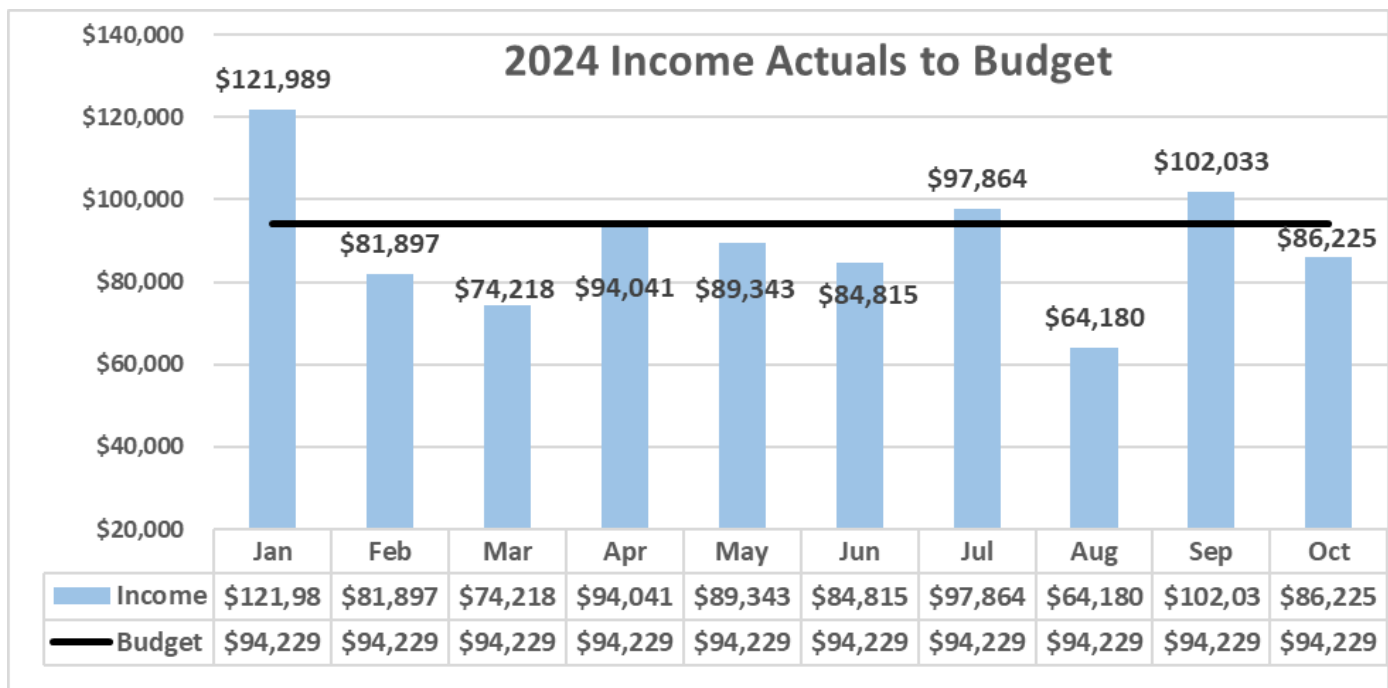

Thank you for your past and ongoing stewardship! During the State of the Church meeting in June, Asbury’s financial team shared that the 2024 monthly budget giving target is $94,229 (see the solid line in the graph below). Your gifts support Asbury’s operations and the impactful ministries that serve our community. Through November, we have met this target only 3 months this year (not counting the generous gift from the Vivian Campbell estate in February). Now, more than ever, we need to increase our contributions to get back on track. We ask you to prayerfully consider increasing your gifts so we can reach our monthly financial goal and end 2024 in a healthy financial position.

Faithful & Inclusive

A Virtual Study for Church Leaders

General Conference decisions related to ministry by, with, and for LGBTQ persons naturally leads church leaders to seek clarity and discernment on next steps in ministry. Asbury will begin a period of congregational discernment using the bible study Faithful and Inclusive: The Bible, Sexuality, and the United Methodist Church by Rev. Rob Fuquay. Faithful and Inclusive allows you to gain an understanding of how United Methodists can be both obedient to God's Word and fully welcoming to LGBTQ persons in the church.

Although death is a universal experience, most people are uncomfortable discussing important end-of-life plans. An AARP End-of-Life Survey done this year found that seven out of ten people avoid discussing this topic. While thinking of a loved one's death may be emotionally difficult, discussions about end-of-life wishes are among the most critical conversations of your life. Sharing your wishes with your family gives them a valuable gift that can help ease some of the stress of a challenging time.

The following items should be included in your End-of-Life Plans:

1. Advanced Directives are a set of instructions that can clearly identify your wishes for medical care in serious medical situations and help relieve the burden on your family. This document may apply to any severe medical conditions, such as stroke or coma, that leave you unable to communicate your wishes. Once you have completed this document, it is essential to review your desires annually.
2. A Living Will is a type of advanced directive that identifies your wishes regarding life-sustaining medical treatments if you are terminally ill and unable to communicate your desires. The living will outlines which medical treatments you want or do not want and reflects your wishes about how your last days may be spent. The living will applies if one is permanently unconscious or at the end of a terminal illness. In this document, you will address questions including:
 - A. Do you want to be resuscitated?
 - B. Do you want a feeding tube?
 - C. Do you want to be hospitalized, or would you prefer to die at home?
 - D. Do you want artificial breathing tubes used to keep you alive?
3. A Living Trust expresses precisely what you want done with your assets, finances and other possessions both while you are living and after you die. Itemizing your assets is the first step. Legal help is optional in Maryland, but states may differ. Your signature and the signatures of two witnesses not named in the will and witness your free will consent are obligatory. The simpler you make it the better.
4. Power of Attorney designates a person you want to make decisions for you when you can not make decisions for yourself. This person should be chosen when you are healthy and in your right mind. Doing so in advance is beneficial to your loved ones. AARP recommends that everyone over 18 should have this document in place.
5. Your Last Will and Testament details the distribution of assets and management of your affairs. It must be signed by you and witnessed by two individuals who are not included in the will.
6. Making Funeral and Burial Plans will greatly help family members as well. These can range from basic ideas to a detailed plan. For example, some will designate favorite hymns, scriptures or poems they want included in their services.
7. Organ and Tissue Donation Designation is a desirable next step. One person's organs can save eight lives and enhance the lives of 75 individuals. Once you say yes to organ and tissue donation, it is essential to inform your family and include your decision in your end-of-life documents.
8. Some individuals will prepare an Obituary and Death Notice, relieving stress for family members.
9. Once you are ready, organize all of your important documents and records in one location and let your family members know where to find them. Making your end-of-life plans well ahead of time will make things easier for your family when the time comes.

When you care for others you are caring for Christ.

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

THE NEHEMIAH FUND

Thank you for your contributions to The Nehemiah Fund of Asbury United Methodist Church. The Nehemiah Fund provides emergency financial assistance to members of Asbury United Methodist Church and their immediate families who temporarily need help in meeting housing, nutritional, medical, security, or other essentials of daily living. In rare cases, the Fund may be accessed for burial assistance for members of Asbury United Methodist Church. The Fund may also be used to support needs of members of the community at large. The Fund is maintained by general and undesignated offerings made during the Communion offering on the first Sunday of each month or other period when an offering is taken associated with a Communion service at Asbury United Methodist Church. Requests for assistance are held in confidence and administered by our Senior Pastor, Rev. Dr. Ianther Mills.

Thank you for the cards, gifts, and kind expressions of appreciation extended to the entire ministerial staff during Clergy Appreciation Month. We are honored to serve you in the name of the Lord.

Rev. Dr. Ianther Mills

Rev. Dr. Mills, Pastors & Members of Asbury,
